Mr. Create-or/Builder - Jim Devall, MLG

Greetings Ganders and Gosling.

I hope all is well and everyone is able to get out to enjoy the gorgeous Texas spring weather. Looks like we've put winter behind us (except for the freeze claims) and have a month or so before the summer heat is upon us. We are seeing some positive signs that we are getting a handle on the pandemic. Many more people have received a vaccination and the tests concerning the effectiveness of the vaccines keep showing better and better results. All adults are now eligible to get the vaccine and availability of the vaccine on the rise. With all of this great news, we need to start planning for the future. We will have our April meeting virtually, but we are planning to have the May meeting in person. This will be a "Cinco de Mayo" celebration. We will announce the venue shortly, but rest assured we are taking every precaution to see that we can meet safely. I'm so excited about the opportunity to greet everyone in person and hope everyone will plan to join. I want to thank everyone for sticking with us over that last year. The challenges have been great, but in true Blue Goose spirit, each of you has perceived and helped each other along the way. I feel so blessed and proud to be a part of the Blue Goose family. Stay safe, look out for each other and be well.

SEE you soon!

COMMUNICATIONS COORDINATOR

News - Update - Tidbits

Here is the message from our Most Loyal Grand Gander, Dan Rich that went out to all Blue Goose members.

"On February 23rd Sue and I drove to Rentschler Field in East Hartford, the site of an old airport that now is home of the University of Connecticut's 40,000 seat football stadium. We'll be going there again on March 16. Our trips there, unfortunately, are not to see the Huskies score touchdowns, but to receive our Pfizer vaccine shots.

The vaccines have been rolling out across the U.S. and Canada and depending on what state or province you live in, you are seeing restaurants, bars, movie theaters or pretty much everything else opening up. How wonderful is that?

We're not where we were in early 2020 yet, but that light at the end of the tunnel is shining decidedly brighter as I write this.

And although we're not ready to sit in a 40,000-seat football stadium quite yet, things are thankfully moving in an optimistic direction.

As I read about the economy re-opening, it occurred to me that Blue Goose never really had to reopen because all of you made sure that Blue Goose never closed. You kept your essential services running, you embraced virtual meetings, you recreated your charitable activities, and you inspired me with your creativity.

But just as we're not quite ready to sit in that big football stadium (despite our desires to do so), we're not quite ready to hold a traditional Grand Nest Convention.

So just as your Ponds have re-imagined your events, we'll be re-imagining our Summer Gathering as "A Day of Fellowship".

For those who can travel to Connecticut, you'll be invited to join us on Sunday July 25 and Monday July 26. And for those who aren't quite ready or able to travel yet, just as our Ponds creatively held events, we'll be using technology to offer a live stream of our activities.

The plan is to have our delegates vote on a new slate of officers and have them installed on Sunday, then have a Blue Goose Day of Fellowship at a Connecticut Winery on Monday. Finishing touches are being completed and details and registration plans will be announced very soon.

We will be refunding registration payments for those of you who have previously registered for the original convention at the Hartford Marriott, and we will be in touch with our sponsors to offer some options.

This has been a most challenging time for all of us, but I am humbled by the strength and resilience you have shown. We want you to know that the Honorable order is alive and well but will be different as we redefine this year's summer gathering.

One of the differences will be the timing of the release of delegate credentials. They will go out fairly soon, in a separate mailing from the usual May mailing to the Wielders.

We will do our best to balance what is safe and practical along with character, charity, and fellowship in July, and we hope you can join us in whatever format you feel most comfortable with.

Very Best Regards,

Dan Rich, Most Loyal Grand Gander
